- The Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan has a current loan origination fee of 4.228%. This amount is charged by the government and withheld from each loan disbursement.
- The 2025-2026 interest rate is fixed at 8.944%. Interest will begin to accrue after the first disbursement of the loan.

HOW DO I APPLY FOR A FEDERAL DIRECT PARENT PLUS LOAN?

- A parent can apply for a Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan by visiting studentaid.gov. The parent FSA ID username and password are needed to login. On the main welcome page, select “Parent”. Next click “Apply for a Parent PLUS Loan”. The PLUS process will ask for information about the parent, allow a parent to indicate a loan amount and initiate a credit check. (Borrow for the entire year, versus one semester at a time). Credit checks are valid for 180 days.
- When completing the application, enter the amount you wish to borrow for academic year 2025-2026. We require that you indicate a specific dollar amount in the loan request field. Remember to add in the 4.228% origination fee.
- The individual parent applying for the loan will also need to complete a Master Promissory Note (MPN) online at studentaid.gov. The MPN can be completed as soon as the credit is approved. Click on “Parent”. Next, click on “Complete a Master Promissory Note for a Parent PLUS Loan”. The Loan Application is not complete until we receive both the loan application and the Master Promissory Note. The Direct Parent PLUS application process must be completed annually, even though the Parent PLUS MPN is required only once.

WHAT ARE MY OPTIONS IF I AM DENIED A FEDERAL DIRECT PARENT PLUS LOAN?

 - Obtain an endorser. The endorser must pass a credit check.

OR

- The denial permits the student to receive an additional Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan of up to $4,000 for first and second year students and up to $5,000 for juniors and seniors. The total amount for which a student is eligible will be determined by the Office of Student Financial Services.
